Gemy Bathtub 3.0

The bathtubs in the past decades were designed for people's sitting gesture, when users were bathing, the pressure points concentrated on their waist and feet, so that their body did not totally relax in fact.

The back design of Gemy Bathtub 3.0 is based on ergonomic principle, plus the perfect match of bathtub pillow, the pressure points spread to users' head, neck, and back, releasing the stress from all their joints, with a comfortable gesture like "backstroke". And this is really what we called "relaxed", in deeper and further feeling and enjoyment.

Symphony Magic

When we are using traditional bathtub, we always fill just 70% water into the tub, because water will overflow after the tub is full. And overflowed technology can perfectly solve this problem, the water will be overflowed into the water channel aside the tub, and the overflowed pump will draw the water from the water channel and refill into the tub, it is what we called "Circulating Water".

The overflowed technology will make the water immerse your neck during bathing become possible, your body will be fully soaked and relaxed sufficiently.

Traditional bathtub without overflowed technology, water only immerses to your chest.

Free-standing — Series

I hear thy shrill delight:
Keen as are the arrows,
Of that silver sphere,

Until we hardly see--we feel that it is there.
But we can exactly see, free-standing everywhere.
